

HAFT VADI

BELLY DANCE STUDIO

Sunset on Ahrens Street

Dearest dancers and dance fans,

On Friday, we were informed that the artist-run building at 100 Ahrens Street, which has served as our home for almost 12 years, has been sold to a large real estate corporation. The current tenants are not able to continue with the artist-friendly leasing terms that have made it possible for us to provide excellent music and dance experiences at affordable prices. So, we're bidding farewell to the space, but not to the studio.

At Haft Vadi, our definition of bellydance has always been "a solo, improvisational dance to live music." So, we have decided to move forward with specializing in small classes and private lessons in an intimate setting, so that Haft Vadi can be the place where dancers who want to reach their highest potential can go and get the expert training they need. We are also committed to providing a perfect starting place for beginner dancers who don't want to be just one of the crowd.

We'll be posting a new session soon starting mid-October, including dance, music, and delicious stretch and strength classes.

Sale! Sale! (Sept. 21)

It's time for downsizing, so we're inviting you to come and get all the bling you need. I have many beautiful, well-made velvet coin scarves from Istanbul that look and sound great and won't fall apart when you dance, as well as many other wonderful shinies. On Sept. 21st between 11 and 5, come on over to Ahrens Street and scoop up what you need. The mirrors are also up for grabs. We can also make another appointment if you want to buy a nice armload of goodies and cannot make this time.

Journey Through Egypt, May 2015

Despite the changes, we are still hosting the amazing Journey Through Egypt course in May 2015. Level One will run May 8 to 10, and Level Two will run May 15 to 17. These courses always sell out, so don't miss your chance. Email dharlene@haftvadi.com to express your interest and get registration information.
